हिन्दू सत्संग समाचार Hindu Satsang Newsletter

जुलाई २०१९ 🕉 July 2019

Pranaam!! Greetings to all Satsangis. Summer is warming up and so is our events scenario. We just had our annual summer picnic on July 14th. A big shoutout to our Special Events coordinators Kanchan ji and Shammi ji for doing such an amazing job in organizing the picnic. The weather was sizzling hot and humid but that could not dampen the spirits of our satsangis. Here are some of the pictures from the picnic at our Hindu Satsang Facebook page: http://bit.lv/julvsummerpicnic2019.

While you are at Facebook, please Follow and Like Hindu Satsang page to stay tuned to the latest updates. We will have our annual Krishna Janmashtami program on Aug 25, in place of our regular monthly congregation. Please contact Special Events coordinators if you would like to participate in the program. Due to time restrictions, please limit to one item per person/group, duration not exceeding 4 minutes - this is to ensure that everyone gets an opportunity to perform and we wrap up on time for lunch.

The guest speaker for our June congregation was Ms. Jyotsna Patel who spoke about achieving a healthy lifestyle through meditation. We thank her for taking time out of her busy schedule and sharing some of her invaluable experiences with us. Our guest singer could not make it due to some unavoidable circumstances, we really appreciate Gayatri Vasudev for stepping in at the last minute with some of her melodious bhajans. Gayatri's velvety voice held the audience spellbound.

Wish you all a very happy Nag Panchami (August 5), Raksha Bandhan (August 15) and 73rd Independence Day (August 15). Hoping to see you all on Sunday, July 28 at 10 am for our monthly congregation at HTGC Temple. Namaste - Priya Viswanathan 💥

Festivals in August - Nag Panchami

When is Nag Panchami this year: Monday, August 05, 2019.

When is Naga Panchami celebrated?

Nag Panchami is celebrated on the fifth day (Panchami) in Shukla paksha (i.e. in the bright half, after the new moon) of the month of Shravana. This falls in the month of July or August.

What is Naga Panchami celebration about?

The word Nag in the Sanskrit language means snake. Nag Panchami is a traditional worship of snakes observed by Hindus all over the world. Snake idols are offered milk and incense to help the worshipper gain knowledge, prosperity, and fame.

Association of snakes and Hindu Gods and Goddesses: Snakes play prominent roles in various legends. Shiva wears a snake called Vasuki around his neck and his two sons - Ganesha wears a snake belt and Kartikeya has a snake close to him. Vishnu sleeps on a snake called Adi Shesha or Shesh Nag. Lashman and Balaram are considered to be the avatar of Shesh Nag. Another snake described in our Hinduism was the Kaliya snake who poisoned the entire Yamuna river. Later Krishna confronted and made him leave the river. A Snake goddess prayed in North and North East India is Mansa Devi (sister of Vasuki).

The legend about Naga Panchami:

In the Mahabharata, "Sarpa Satra" yagna was being performed by Kuru King Janamejaya to completely eliminate the snake species from the face of the earth. King Janamejaya was avenging the death of his father Parikshita who died due to a snake bite. Sage Astika saved the snakes species from extinction by stopping King Janamejaya's fire sacrifice yagna. Since then, that day is observed as Nag Panchami.

Scientific explanation:

Hinduism recognizes the need to protect species which could be prone to killing and ultimate extinction due to fear and danger from them. Snakes contribute a lot to ecological balance and hence need to be respected and preserved. It is found to be difficult to make people realize that nature's balance should not be disturbed by killing certain animals. By associating snakes with Gods, it provides protection to snakes so that they can thrive and not go extinct.

QUIZ: Vahanas of the Hindu Gods

Most of the Hindu deities have a particular animal as their vehicle or vahana. Vahana in Sanskrit means "which carries or pulls". So important are the vahanas that deities are seldom depicted without their corresponding animals or birds. These vahanas represent the various spiritual and psychological forces that carry each deity and represent it. Take a ride on this quiz and see how many of the vahanas (right side) you can drive to their respective deity on the left:

ANIMAL CHARACTERS IN RAMAYAN

Hinduism's compassionate way of living, treats all living beings from animals down to insects and tiny creatures with great respect as aspects of God, having souls of their own, going through the same process of births and deaths as human beings. Here are some of the important animal characters in Ramayan:

The great birds - Jatayu and Sampati;

The monkeys - Hanuman, Vali, Sugriva, Angada, Nala and Nila;

The bear king - Jambavan, and even the squirrels who helped to build Rama's bridge (Ram Setu) to Lanka. 💥
